Ben attended rountable and discussion was about Camporee @ Etchokotee October 9-11th. The cost is $16.00 per Scout

Army/Navy Outdoors-Carl is heavily involved in Order of Arrow and is the Chapter advisor. Scout day is weekend before Camporee. A demonstration on Dutch oven cooking will be presented John Howard.

Order of the Arrow will be presented to the troop during the October Court of Honor ceremony. Ben will confirm the fee. Clayton, Seabrook, and Joseph Vaughn are already members. The committee can elect an adult to represent us. John Howard wants more involvement from Troop 161.

Outdoor activities
Wild Adventures

The treasury report was provided by Tanya Drummond
The troop is in need of a training coordinator to keep track of all training adults and youth. It is recommended that all adult leaders take all of the safety classes required. This includes Safe Swim, Youth Protection, Safety Afloat, and Hazardous Weather.

New Business

Popcorn sales are coming up and the committee needs to decide if the total popcorn sales will go to the troop at 35% of sales going into the troop's account or to have 30% of sales go towards the troop's account and have the scouts receive a prize.
Ben Carder will announce the time and place for the Court of Honor Ceremony in October.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:30pm
